

Development and Disability Research Program report for 2006

Members: Dr Marilyn Campbell, Dr Linda Gilmore, Dr Ruth Fielding-Barnsley, Dr Fiona Spencer, Teresa Sedgley, Dr Rebecca Spooner-Lane

Grants

Currently Held

2 x ARC Discoveries

Linda

“The development of the capacity to delay gratification in children with an intellectual disability”

Ruth

“Intervention for vulnerable beginning readers”

Marilyn

1 x QUT T&L Grant

1 x QUT Equity Grant

Submitted

2 ARC Discoveries

Linda & Marilyn

“Investigating and promoting resilience in children with intellectual and physical disabilities”

Linda

“Lazy children: An investigation of cognitive and learning characteristics and an intervention to promote academic motivation and achievement”

1 x Linkage

Marilyn

“Cyber bullying: An Evidence-based Approach to the Application and Reform of Law, Policy and Practice”

1 x Early Career Grant

Rebecca

“Fostering Resiliency among Teachers: Identifying Factors that Sustain and Retain Quality Teachers”

Supervision

Marilyn

EdD (2)

PhD (3)

MPsych (3)

Linda

PhD (1)

MPsych (4)

Publications

Conferences

Marilyn (4)

APS Annual Conference, Auckland.

International Counselling Conference. Contesting indigenous knowledge and indigenous studies conference.

Practical Experiences in Professional Education.

Linda (4)

APS Annual Conference, Auckland (2 papers being presented)

International Down Syndrome Conference.

Connecting Minds Conference.

Ruth (1)

Learning Difficulties Australia

Journals

Marilyn

4 submitted

“Teaching with Confidence: A pilot study of an intervention challenging pre-service education students’ field experience anxieties”

“Innovative counselling with anxious children”

“Give me a name for what’s wrong with him”: A case study of a rare chromosome disorder”

“Anxiety and Indigenous youth”

Linda

3 journal articles

“The first thing that comes to mind: Perceptions of Down Syndrome in the Australian community”

“Parental strategies for assisting children to wait”

“Intergenerational continuities and discontinuities in parenting”

2 submitted

“Give me a name for what’s wrong with him”: A case study of a rare chromosome disorder”

“The developmental consequences of rare chromosome disorders”

Ruth

1 submitted

“Environmental education for inclusive classrooms in culturally diverse schools”

Activities

- Last year breakfast launch emulated by CLI
- One new member (Dr Beth Sagers)
- Vacation scholar
- Promotion to Senior Lecturer - Ruth
- Masters of psychology thesis supervisors

- Supported each other with research which informed our teaching

Budget

$15,000

1

$10,000 general RA

$5000 individual expenses

Expended

$5,607.72 RA (Gitta)

Marilyn

$1026.82 Measures

Linda

$2000 Conference

$550 RA

Ruth

$1000 RA

$250 Conference

Spent $10,434

Committed

$4000 RA funding – Gitta

Not committed

$1,500 to be spent by 31st

October

Footnote: Fiona – maternity leave / Teresa – PhD completion / Rebecca – Early Career & Teaching Load

